

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election and to deny airing of Fahrenheit 911 is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and media political bias.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest in educating the public in a non partisan or balanced way.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
